DIRECTOR TAYLOR APPEALS FOR MORE SKY WATCHERS

The time has come again when we may be on the verge of war, as in 1940 and 1941, but this time we will feel the brunt of war in our cities and factories, as well as our pocketbooks.

To be sure our high officials know more about the situation than we do. But if we stop and think, there must be a reason for putting 27 states, and 60,000 people on a 24 hour lookout. First of all, even if there is not an attack from the skies, by putting a round-the-clock watch at the Observation Posts (naturally the enemy will know that) it might prevent an attack. Second, if the enemy should send 400 bombers over the U. S., we could give the air force information if some of them came over this territory, as no doubt they would fly low to keep out of the radar screen.

In the past we have been reporting all military planes, but at the present time only multi-motored (more than two motors) planes will be reported. If in doubt make a report as unknown.

At Local Director of Civil Defense I appeal to the residents of Bethel, East Bethel, West Bethel and Albany to volunteer for the weekly sky watch. Surely you can give two hours a week of your time to help save lives and property. Remember Civil Defense is a volunteer organization which renders assistance to areas in distress, saving lives and property.

For information call Bethel 16, George L. Taylor, Local Director.

Offer Varied Attractions at Bazaar Sat.

Bethel's 4th Annual Bazaar will be held on Saturday, August 2nd, with all the townspeople taking part in one way or another, to raise money for the benefit of the town as a whole. There is in the treasury at the present an amount to take care of any disaster that might occur in the next three years. At the first meeting this season it was voted to use all monies raised at this year's bazaar as follows: to donate the sum of $100 to the Community Room, to finance the 4th of July celebration in 1953 and the balance to be used for equipment for the playgrounds of the town's schools. Surely everyone will agree that these are very worthy while projects and it is the sincere hope that all will approve and help to make this a great success.

The events of the day will start with the PTA Auction at 10:00 a. m. at the Community Room and the Fire Station. Any who have not been reached by the many solicitors and having articles to donate may leave them at the Community Room or with Mrs. Marjorie Freeman, or if you want the articles called for Mrs. Freeman and her helpers will be glad to collect them.

There will be games of skill, Penny Toss, Pitch 'Til You Win, Raffles, Beano, Children's bowling game, Driving Nails, On Sale will be Novelties, Homemade foods, Candies, and plenty of places where one can satisfy the inner man, namely with lunches, hot dogs, hamburgers, hot and cold drinks. These games and booths will be managed by the various groups such as the Lions Club, Chamber of Commerce, Guilds, Girl Scouts etc. The Boy Scouts will be present to run errands and help in any way they can.

The Comm. will be roped off to make it safer for the children that will be running about and both, also to make more room for the day's events.

Of interest to many will be the football game between local teams, and a single men's football game at 2 o'clock on the field. As they feel that these games have been arranged, something has been done for the town and the bazaar.

But what about the folks back home who do not have $15,000 plus jobs? How do the Congressmen believe the folks with these four or five thousands dollars before taxes make ends meet? It is claimed by statisticians that each of us is now paying $477 annually on Federal taxes alone. This means a total of $1,500 for a family of four? Does Congress look upon these people as deserving of relief from their tax burden?"

As I amble around, here and there, on Main Street and off, and listen to the pros and cons on politics—and then put 2 and 2 together—I conclude that too many candidates figure the average voter is not such a hot sketch. Too many of our Big Talkers figure "once a sucker, always a sucker." They know we been voting like a fool for many a moon now. Also they don't catch on that a worm can turn. Also they don't know that a bolsterous few—with a personal ax to grind—are not the average, substantial citizens.

The average substantial citizen also his views and gripes to his neighbor—he don't hop the rattler and head for Poloma-land as does the guy or dame who says he or she represents the folks back home who want bigger Govt. — bigger labor bosses—bigger and better dams—Govt. bossed schools—more farm floors. Fact is the folks back home have never seen and don't even know the guy or dame who says they bleed for the home folks.

So I deduct finally, and this goes the sucker shoe is on the other foot. The folks back home are gonna lower the boom on Big Govt. That is what I pick up on by here and there listening. This coming autumn will tell who is the yokel and vice versa.

Guidance at Hand

MANY events recorded in the Scriptures show that those who love righteousness and seek the guidance of God, divine Mind, receive from Him wisdom and intelligence that lead to achievement. When thought is humble and receptive, God's angels—spiritual intuitions—can be depended upon to instruct one. The Bible assures us (Isaiah 30: 21), "Thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it."

But the thought full of error misleads. Hence for not many God's voice. To one who is proud, willful, and egotistical, the right or better way may even seem wrong. In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, writes (p. 108), "God has endowed man with inalienable rights, among which are self-government, reason, and conscience." Then she adds the significant statement, "Man is properly self-governed only when he is guided rightly and governed by his Maker, divine Truth and Love." True self-government expresses the will of God and is never synonymous with self-will.

The sixteenth chapter of Matthew speaks of instructions that Christ Jesus gave his disciples during which he foretold his crucifixion and resurrection. Impetuous Peter protested, feeling certain, no doubt, that there was no justifiable reason why one so good should submit to such an ordeal. But the selfless Saviour rebuked the uncomprehending thought, saying (verse 23), "Get thee behind me, Satan; thou art an offence unto me; for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men." Strong personal feeling would have had the Way-shower stop short of the fulfillment of his great mission.

We are called upon continually to make decisions. Both experience and observation show the danger of allowing one's thought to become clouded by strong personal or partisan feelings, which tend to shut out the impartiality of Mind. Thought must be free from narrow opinions and hampering prejudices in order to be able to receive right intuitions. Thinking must be calm and intelligent in order that wise and just decisions may be reached. . . . God created man in His own image and likeness; hence man reflects the qualities of God. God is supreme wisdom and intelligence; hence there is no limit to man's reflected ability to manifest these spiritual qualities. These great facts are not affected in the least by differences in race, nationality, or language, or by finite concepts of time and space. It is infinite Mind's individual expression, not matter, which identifies the real man. . . .

The great need of mankind is to know God, Jesus' understanding of God enabled him to accomplish the marvelous good that accrued through his ability to demonstrate God's presence and power was exclusively his own. On the contrary, his assurance was (John 14:2), "He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do because I go unto my Father." Jesus looked always to his Father, divine Mind, for the spiritual understanding and guidance that enabled him to go from achievement to achievement and to provide an everlasting example of man's ability to express the true nature of God. — The Christian Science Monitor.

FOOT-AND-MOUTH DISEASE

LABORATORY HEARINGS HELD

Dean of Agriculture Arthur L. Deering of the University of Maine served on a three-man board which heard testimony at a recent series of public hearings on the establishment of a laboratory for the investigation of foot-and-mouth disease at Plum Island, New York. He reports that the decision on the location of the laboratory will be made by Secretary of Agriculture Charles Brannan after consideration of the testimony which was submitted to him after the hearings. With only three large countries in the world free of foot-and-mouth disease—Australia, New Zealand and the United States—Dean Deering says nearly everyone agrees that the lab should be set up soon. Congress appropriated $14,000,000.

B. A. C. BETTERS LOCKE MILLS
9-1 FOR THIRD LEAGUE WIN

Lawrence Bailey pitched and batted the Bethel A. C. to victory over Locke Mills on the losers diamond on Tuesday night. Bailey allowed only two safe hits to Locke Mills, those by first baseman Raymond Seames, while connecting for three singles in four trips to the plate. Stan Merrill and John Brown each belted doubles while Pete Baker, Bill Robertson and Fenton Robertson all collected singles.

Bethel will meet Buckfield on Thurston Field on Sunday afternoon at 2:30. West Paris will appear on the local diamond next Thursday for a 6 o'clock game.

Aurika, Oula, News-Tribune: "We will have taken just about the last step to socialism when we turn the schools over to the Federal government. Size of City Does Not
Decide Family Income

Special studies made by the U. S. Bureau of the Census on the population characteristics of the nation's leading metropolitan areas and their variations in family income provide a significant commentary on the broad distribution of opportunity existing in the nation today.

These figures show that the size of a city does not necessarily determine the size of the income of the average family living there, and that many a smaller city is apt to offer equal or better chances for financial advancement on the average than the big ones.

For example, the New York-Northeastern New Jersey metropolitan area is by far the largest in the nation on a population basis. However, it ranked 15th in median family income in 1947, the year for which the Bureau of the Census figures were compiled, and it was outranked by a number of very much smaller metropolitan areas such as Hartford, Rochester and Dayton. As a matter of fact, five of the nation's Big Ten metropolitan centers—Los Angeles, Philadelphia, Boston, Pittsburgh and St. Louis—were well down on the list.

The No. 1 city in median family income was Washington, with half the families in the nation's capital having incomes of $11,150 or more in 1947. Washington currently ranks 10th in population among the metropolitan areas. Its high level of family income largely reflects the great growth of the Federal Government over the last two decades.

Two of the nation's biggest cities, Detroit and Chicago, were in second and third position in median family income ranking, Detroit with $10,990 and Chicago with $10,531. The next two, however, Cleveland and Milwaukee, are not among the 10 biggest metropolitan areas, and No. 4 on the median family income list is Hartford, which the last census rated in 47th place among metropolitan areas on a population basis.

BETHEL CONTINUES LOSING:
RUMFORD PT. IS VICTOR, 8-2

George Barker allowed the Bethel A. C. only four hits and a pair of runs at Thurston Field last Thursday evening, July 24. In the meantime the Point's hitters were collecting a total of 15 hits from the slants of Herbie Adams and Bob Baker.

Bartlett, Barker and Colby each produced three hits for the victors, Gallant got two, and Robbins, Elliott, Burns, and Lamson got one each.

Cad Bennett's home run behind a base on balls to Brown produced the only Bethel tally of the contest. Baker, Brown and Andy Witter secured singles of Barker's pitching.

Permanent Waves
Ordinary water doesn't cause a permanent wave in hair, the way a permanent waving solution does. Although ordinary water softens the hair, it does not change the arrangement of the molecules in it, and therefore effects no permanent curling. For home permanents two solutions are used. The first is a chemical that breaks some of the linkages between the hair molecules and this permits the fibers to be curled. Then the second solution is applied, to neutralize the first. It allows the linkages to form again and thus makes permanent the new arrangement.

PIFK IN THE STARS

By LYNN CONNELLY
WELL, fans finally got a look at Bing Crosby on television recently when he and Bob Hope combined talents and efforts in a 14 1/2 hour telethon to raise funds for the Olympic teams. We can only go along with the others in saying that Bing is perhaps the greatest TV natural to come along since Godfrey. . . . The wildest enthusiasm heralding his debut wouldn't be overdone. . . . The man is all showman, quick-witted, talented (this is not news, of course) and easygoing.

When he and Hope can team up and read just pages of contributions for hours and make it entertaining, that's showmanship! In addition, there was a lot of wonderful entertainment by such luminaries as their sidekick, Dorothy Lamour, who, incidentally, stayed up through the whole 14 1/2 hours with them (and the three of them looked just as fresh at the end as they did when they started), Elio Plina, Martin and Lewis, Rosemary Clooney, Robert Young, Fred MacMurray, and many, many others.

Highlights were probably the half-hour of lunacy contributed by Martin and Lewis and the priceless trio comprised of Hope, Crosby and Plina singing "Doodle-Dee-Dee" . . . Just hope now that Crosby will consent to having his own show this fall for he is sadly needed by a medium floundering for talent.

PLATTER CHATTER
COLUMBIA:—Doris Day has a good disc to follow her sensational "Guy Is a Guy" . . . It's "Take Me to Your Arms" backed by "When I Fall in Love" . . . Quite a change of pace for madam after her "Guy" hit, but the nice thing about Doris is that she is versatile and can sing a novelty or ballad equally well . . . Toni Arden does a super job on the new "Take My Heart," a tune headed for the big time . . . "Tell Your Tale, Nightingale" is on the flip side . . . Arthur Godfrey keeps rolling with two cuties, "Bodybody" and "Can You Whistle, Johanna?"

Nearly all owners of breeding flocks in Maine now take part in Pullorum disease testing and the approved breed improvement plan.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

Baby's first toddling steps are an event of such importance that you should record it for your photo memory book.

Firsts Are Always Important

ANY collector is always enthusiastic about "firsts"—whether it be the first edition of a book or the original issue of a new stamp. But there are some "firsts" very dear to our hearts that can't be collected in that fashion. They involve people—and the things they do. There are many times you wish you could save these "firsts"—especially when the small fry are concerned.

You can save these precious moments if you keep your camera handy. I recently heard of one young couple who made up their baby's snapshot album almost entirely of "firsts."

It started with baby's first bath in the bathtub. Then there's a picture of mother feeding baby on the day he first ate vegetables. They pictured baby in his best finery, all set for his first expedition into the outer world—in this case a visit to grandmother. Naturally, as time passed, there were more firsts. They ran into a little difficulty when they tried to picture the first tooth, and had to settle for a snapshot of baby which went into the album with the date and label "today baby cut his first tooth." His first toddling steps were recorded, too, of course.

They plan to continue this record throughout his childhood. There'll be pictures of the first day of school, the first grown-up suit and of the uniform in which he makes his football debut.

Of course, they'll make other pictures in between, but they feel their collection of "firsts" will bring fond memories in later years when Bobby is an adult with his own family.

—John van Guilder

Enriched flour is very important to good nutrition in Maine, says Dr. Kathryn Briven, Maine Extension Service food specialist.

Most leading Maine dairymen use the services of both the Dairy Herd Improvement Association and the Maine Breeding Cooperative. These groups help dairymen build better herds.

From Mrs. Lella McDaniel, Murray, Ky.: I remember when before putting the carpet on the floor, we put a layer of thin wheat straw on the floor first and then put the carpet down and tacked it all around the edges.

From Flora Dietrich, El Paso, Texas: I remember taking my poll and going out in the fields along the fields along the old rail fences to pick wild strawberries, which my mother made into delicious jam.

From Mrs. Marie Nance, Orange, Fla.: I am 63 years old. I remember when I was a girl Mother gave me 15 cents with which I was to buy at the market a loaf of bread for five cents and two pounds of beef liver for supper for a family of six.

From Mrs. Mary E. O'Dell, Sequim, Wash.: I remember when we had straw ticks to climb into every fall. They were washed and filled with good oat straw. You nearly needed a ladder to get into bed, as our feather ticks were on top of the straw ones.

From Mary Karch, Lakewood, Ohio: I remember knot making time. We would invite the neighbors in to help. There was a clean space to chop the cabbage and a wooden barrel with stamper. We children were handed dishes of juicy kraut as a treat.
